

All is the Lord's will including Sadhana

In order for God to take back what He has loaned us - do we need to prepare it as a nice sweet (payasam) or does God prefer to devour us raw as a freshly picked fruit? (i.e. - do sadhana or just say I will gladly wait here on your tree until you get hungry)

Who can do Sadhana unless he wills & facilitates your way to Him.

DIVERSION OF an energy & the RE CONVERGENCE BOTH HIS PLAY.

DO NOTHING - STAND ASIDE & ENJOY THE FOOTBALL GAME. DON'T be like a rich man who saw in the football game many were running after a single ball. He rushed in his car & brought some 20 balls & placed before them. Take them one for each. WHY RUN AFTER ONE BALL?

Question: In order for God to take back what He has loaned us- do we need to prepare it as a nice sweet (payasam) or does God prefer to devour us raw as a freshly picked fruit? (i.e. - do Sadhana or just say I will gladly wait here on your tree until you get hungry)

Response: Who can do Sadhana unless he wills and facilitates your way to Him? Diversion of an energy and the re convergence both his play. Do nothing- stand aside and enjoy the football game. Don't be like a rich man who saw in the football game many were running after a single ball. He rushed in his car and brought some 20 balls and placed before them. Take those one for each. Why run after/ one ball?
