

Follow prescribed paths

In GITA THERE IS ONE VERSE “One who follows/treads not NON-TRADITIONAL PATHS WILL NEVER REACH THE GOAL” In CHANDOGYA A STORY COMES OF 4 famous saints-teachers of MEDITATION on parts of UNIVERSE, → SUN, WATER, etc. earned a lot of money & were on the	verge of eternal damnation due to the PARTIAL MEDITATION & rescued by their good sense which took them to a learned KING who told them “you have come just in time. Otherwise you would have either incurred a fell disease or suffer too badly because of your WRONG APPROACH IN MEDITATION.”
---	---

In Gita there is one verse:

“One who follows/treads non-traditional paths will never reach the goal”

In Chandogya a story comes of 4 famous saints-teachers of Meditation on parts of Universe → sun, water, etc. earned a lot of money and were on the verge of eternal damnation due to the partial meditation and rescued by their good sense which took them to a learned King who told them, “You have come just in time. Otherwise you would have either incurred a fell disease or suffer badly because of your wrong approach in meditation.