

God is the least attractive goods

God is the least attractive goods.

It is the Lord who chooses His customers.

There is one Shanti mantra in Upanishad. A part of it reads:-

"Lord please do not reject me – please do not reject me."

'Lord Jesus have mercy on us.' This means, do not reject me.

Be merciful – give me your constant remembrance and includes everything.

In Bhagavatam:- "The one on whom I want to bestow my Grace I strip him first of all his riches and possessions slowly."