

OM

The Pure 'OM' could be like this.

There are some people, who, without understanding the purpose of MANDUKYA UPANISHAD teaching, divide the intonation by starting with 'A' (~~as in~~ ^{the} sound of ū as in under) developing it into ū (as in HŪNDI) and ending in long drawn M. The correct one is ~~to~~ one long drawn 'OM' sound which may be considered as pure.

As mandukya speaks of material riches too, people who recite it with desires – that OM is a SAGUNA BRAHMAN capable of fulfilling desires – On the other hand, if we ~~consider it~~ do it without material motive it may be pure 'OM'.

The one who concentrates on the figure of ALPHABET 'OM' or as an effulgent symbol ~~it~~ as contrasted with OM as Pure Consciousness (not even as sound) – the latter may be considered as Pure.

So the interpretation ~~is~~ at various levels is different.

Your simple questions blossom into complex answers.

The Pure 'Om' could be like this.

There are some people, who, without understanding the purpose of Mandukya Upanishad teaching, divide the intonation by starting with 'A' (i.e. sound of ū as in under) developing into ū (as in Hūndi) and ending in long drawn 'M'. The correct one is – one long drawn 'OM' sound which may be considered as pure.

As Mandukya speaks of material riches too, people who recite it with desires – that OM is a Saguna Brahman capable of fulfilling desires. On the other hand, if we do it without material motive it may be pure 'OM'.

The one who concentrates on the figure of alphabet 'OM' or as an effulgent symbol as contrasted with 'OM' as Pure Consciousness (not even as sound) – the latter may be considered as pure.

So the interpretation at various levels is different.

Your simple questions blossom into complete answers.

OM WILL NOT SUIT ALL.
- SCRIPTURES PROHIBIT CHANTING OF OM
as a japa by householders - IT WILL complicate matters - There will be tug of war & one may lose sanity.
This is exactly what happened to a disciple of mine (a shop keeper at Chennai) whom I warned against Japas which do surgery without anaesthesia - The shock can't be borne by all.
IT IS A ROPE DANCE - TILL YOU BECOME SPIRITUALLY
MATURE YOU CAN'T DISREGARD
YOUR DUTIES TO Parents, wife, children, society, country etc. - as per GITA. If you can't prosper spiritually & if you become a sinner by failing in duties due to wrong guidance from people without proper knowledge of Scriptures, that man will go down.

OM WILL NOT SUIT ALL.

Scriptures prohibit chanting of OM as a japa by householders. It will complicate matters. There will be tug of war and one may lose sanity. This is exactly what happened to a disciple of mine (a shopkeeper at Chennai) whom I warned against Japas which do surgery without anesthesia- the shock can't be borne by all.

It is a rope dance - till you become spiritually mature you can't disregard your duties to parents, wife, children, society, country, etc. - as per Gita. If you can't prosper spiritually and if you become a sinner by failing in duties due to wrong guidance from people without proper knowledge of scriptures, that man will go down.