

Striving for real transformation (handwriting)

Question:

I know fully well that we are in a dream called God's sport. But I cannot keep from being scared due to the fact that except for a microscopic few all around I see great people with good hearts drowning in their own spiritual (complacency).

Therefore – am I right to conclude that the same fate is very possible for me as well? And thus – I must “damn the torpedoes” and go full speed ahead disregarding creature comforts (to a safe degree) and strive and struggle for real – not theoretical transformation.

Forgive me, for I have brought this subject up a hundred times but you did confess you have patience (the opposite of anger).

HARI OM. The entire question & similar doubts arise only because somewhere, in the back of mind, a minute worm of 'lack of full faith' and 'disbelief' in the Lord or Divine Mother persists. We should pray to the Mother to strengthen our FAITH in Her.

We are not bothered about anybody else. Let us go ahead without a single look on the world & its inhabitants. Don't you think that there is a big difference between the dreamer and all the suffering mass who appear in your dream. The dreams do scare us. The remedy is you wake up to the fact that the entire world are your dream figures & in the dream they can afford to live as they like. You have to wake up fully & then you will know that you alone existed as the 'Always Safe' dreamer & there was nothing else. Alternatively, have firm faith in the Compassion of the Mother who has brought you on the path & who has no reason to abandon you half-way to your fate. "All can't be happy at the same time". Similarly "All can't be only Spiritual & thinking of nothing but God for 24 hours".

What creature comfort - you & I lack today. The more we proceed on the path the more your capacity to draw all the comforts & luxury of the world towards you, if you so want. If ~ person lives a frugal life in order that all his savings can be accumulated one day to such extent that he can purchase a Bungalow + Car after ten years, he will not regret that "Oh I have left all my creature comforts. I do not know whether I'll be able to get a house built."

 One has to sacrifice little pleasures voluntarily to gain the highest. Nothing very big can ever be achieved without some sacrifice.

FAITH, SURRENDER + PRAYERS, are the three remedies + if we pray we can get faith + surrender too. So Prayers are of prime most importance.
 In our life of voluntary surrender of all objects + persons who could support us in material life, where from have people like Swamiji Bhai, Kalidas Bhai & even even the Surgeon Dr. Raja Bhasgum spring sprung up who have rendered us help unasked & without any selfish motive of any return gain from us.

yes. Our renunciation has to be full.
 If I still continue to ring up my son & wife & keep correspondence with them it undermines our spiritual life. I will continue to have relationship, go & meet them from some time to time only because I do not believe that Lord will come to my rescue in time of emergency, ^{and} these people - my son, my sister, my mother etc are only mine & being blood relations will come to my help in an emergency of health, poverty or other matters of my future security.
 When I underwent the operations which of my relatives was present in Ranga Pharyngitis clinic. So if we surrender full way we will be looked after by the Mother. You have no idea how much the Mother is prepared to do for us even when we do only partial surrender. Never turn your attention from the ultimate goal.
 Do not see here & there & your neighbours till you reach the goal.

In the Car-race competition, instead of concentrating solely on your track if you were to see your competitors failing en-route & getting into accidents you'll become unnerved & then fail. Till you reach the goal never bother to look at anybody except on those who you feel, are nearing the summit. After you realize you do anything for the world, if it still exists. Be like the horse whose both eyes are so covered with some leather equipment ~~so~~ that it can only look forward & straight.
